Inclusion North News

Inclusion North will share an important news story and tell you about their own work here every two weeks.

A Letter from Downing Street

Denise Bowles is an Expert By Experience at Inclusion North.

Denise has written a book about her life, sharing her experiences about having a learning disability, being part of the LGBTQIA+ community, her career in music and surviving all the challenges that life has thrown at her.

Denise's book is called 'Denise Bowles: Denbo. I Wanna Tell You My Story'.

Denise sent a copy of her book to the Prime Minister, Rishi Sunak, for him to recognize the good work Denise has done for Inclusion North and her volunteering work for the 'Good Lives Project'.

Last week Denise was very happy to get a letter in the post from Downing Street about her book.

The letter says...

'Dear Mrs Bowles,

I am writing on behalf of the Prime Minister, to thank you for sending him your book: 'Denise Bowles: Denbo'.

Thank you, once again, for taking the time and trouble to contact the Prime Minister.

With all good wishes

Yours sincerely

Correspondence Officer, Downing Street'

Denise said writing her book proves to everyone that has bullied her, that she is a somebody, not a nobody.

New People who have joined the team
